THE GAFFER

SIMON WEAVER

Good afternoon everyone, welcome along to The EnviroVent stadium for today's Yorkshire Derby against Bradford City.

I would like to extend a warm welcome to the staff, players, directors and supporters of Bradford City for what should be a really exciting game.

We come into this one on the back of two gritty away performances and two solid points on the road behind us. I am really pleased with the way the players have gone about their business recently in two very difficult games.

Looking back at last Saturday's match against Barrow, we matched a very good side with talented players who had the potential to hurt us. We started the match like a train, we used our pace and quality to get in behind their defence and were extremely unlucky not to have the lead.

Coming into today's game, there are a lot of positives that we can bring here. Two clean sheets for our backline will do their confidence the world of good, we also have Rod McDonald back with us and available for selection.

With his introduction and alongside the rest of the defence, we ended the match against Barrow looking strong at the back. We are at the business end of the season now and I think those traits are something which every team will be desperate for.

We are expecting another very tough match here against Bradford. Having watched their game on Tuesday night, I thought you could see they are a side with a point to prove between now and the end of the season.

Graham is a good coach and always has his sides set up to work hard in and out of possession. They are always fit and look to get after teams when they don't have the ball, that is a challenge we will have to overcome here today.

However, in matches like this, form goes out of the window.

These derby matches mean so much to the players and to the supporters. I am told we will have a strong support behind us today. The players are excited by that prospect and hopefully they can start the match fast to give you guys something to cheer about.

Having already reached the 50 point mark, I am hoping the players use the games that remain to create another wave of optimism between now and the end of the season.

Today must be the start of that, we have five home matches remaining this season and now we want to put our disappointing home record behind us by ending the campaign strongly. If we can fulfill that ambition we will have provided ourselves with a real springboard for the new season.

Thank you for your support!

Simon

JOSH FALKINGHAM

Good afternoon everyone – it’s a great feeling to be heading in to today’s Yorkshire Derby against Bradford City. Throughout our time in the EFL, we have always enjoyed some fiercely competitive matches against today’s opponents and I am sure today will be no different.

Last week, we had some really tough opponents away from home. Barrow and Wrexham are both right up there in the division but full credit to the lads because they more than held their own in both matches.

The consistency within the backline to keep two clean sheets is also really pleasing. At this stage of the season, it’s all about putting together a consistent run of performances and hopefully that can be the start of us doing so with eight games remaining.

Of course, we have to mention a fantastic penalty save from James Belshaw. Full credit must go to Belly and the work he puts in with Phil Priestley and Stuart Thomson to prepare for these big pressure moments.

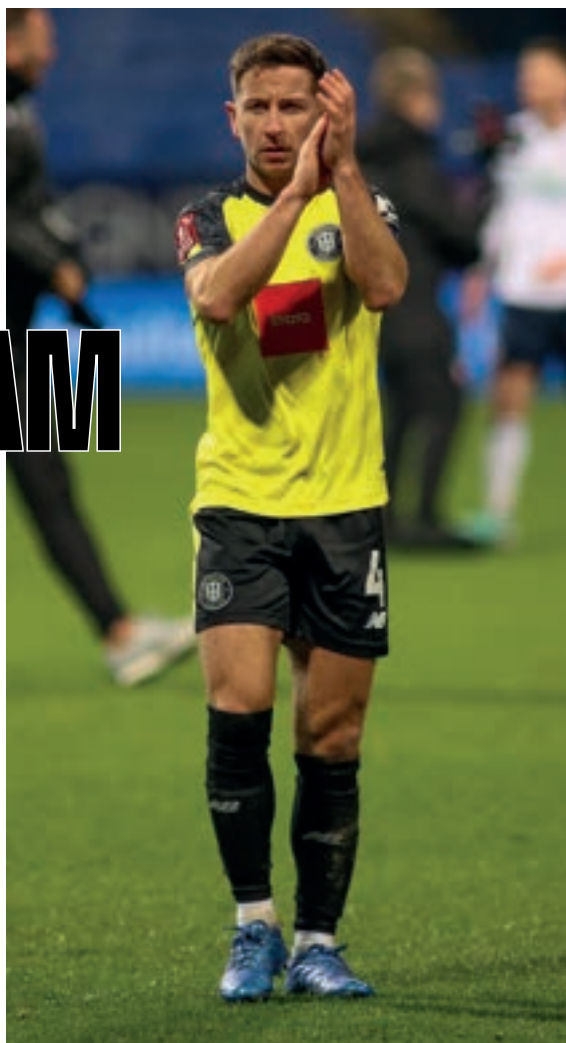

Naturally, with today’s match being a derby we know that form and previous matches goes right out the window. However, having faced Bradford many times since promotion to the EFL we are very keen to uphold what is a good record against today’s opponents.

We have watched a lot of Bradford recently including their defeat to Notts County in midweek and you can see the pace they have in their ranks.

They can hit on the counter with pace and use that to get the ball out wide and put crosses into the box. This week in training we have been working on a game plan to ensure we are ready for this challenge.

However, we also want to start fast and get a foothold in the game. It’s important that we get our flair players on the ball early because they will ask questions of the Bradford backline and keeper.

This match is always one you look out for on the calendar when the schedule is released, I’m sure it will be a really strong crowd behind us today. Bradford too will bring a good following which will only add to the atmosphere.

All those ingredients serve the perfect opportunity for us to improve on our current home form starting here today. With 5 home matches in a relatively short space of time, we hope that a really good performance here today can bring a positive result.

With that, we will give you guys in the terraces something to cheer about and round the place confidence can start to grow more and more.

Hello and welcome to this afternoon's big game! Today we celebrate Unite for Access. In conjunction with Level Playing Field, we're taking a moment to recognise and champion inclusivity in sports.

In a world where sports often serve as a unifying force, it's essential to ensure that everyone, regardless of ability, has equal access and opportunities to participate, enjoy, and excel. United for Access is not just about today's game; it's about a commitment to creating a level playing field for all individuals, regardless of any physical or challenges they may face.

Level Playing Field, a charity dedicated to promoting access and inclusion for disabled sports fans and participants, has been at the forefront of driving positive change within the sporting community. From accessible facilities to inclusive policies, their work has paved the way for countless individuals to engage with sports in meaningful ways.

Today, we stand together with Level Playing Field to celebrate the progress made and reaffirm our dedication to playing sports more accessible and inclusive for everyone. It's about more than just ensuring ramps and designated seating areas; it's about fostering a culture of acceptance and understanding, where everyone feels welcome and valued.

Here at Harrogate Town, we have made improvements to our stadium and policy below are just a few small but successful changes that we have worked on this season.

- ✓ We now have our very own Disabled Access Officer (DAO) Maggie Pattison
- ✓ Added three extra Stoma Toilets
- ✓ Implemented extra accessible Seating
- ✓ Put in rest seats around the ground
- ✓ Food ordering service for disabled supporters

- ✓ Disabled parking is now available.
- ✓ Created a designated parking area for wheelchair and scooters.
- ✓ Designated Turnstile for wheelchairs users

FACTS

- 25.5% of disabled fans said that the attitudes of others are a barrier when attending live sports.
- 23% of disabled fans feel they are unable to attend certain sports or sporting venues because they are inaccessible.
- Up to 70% of disabilities are non-visible.

Other News

- The Independent Supporters are holding a collection and a raffle for their chosen charity this year Dementia Forward, you will see them around the ground.
- We are trialing a pop-up fan zone in Heatherdene car park behind the GH Brook Stand.

WARREN BURRELL

VICE-CAPTAIN WARREN BURRELL ADMITS HE IS EXCITED BY THE PROGRESS TOWN CONTINUE TO MAKE BOTH ON AND OFF THE FIELD AS HE DRAWS CLOSE TO 400 APPEARANCES FOR THE CLUB.

INTERVIEW BY NICKOLAS MCINALLY

"I have been here a long time now and the club has come so far in that time. I am really proud of what we have achieved so far and I was really pleased to sign that contract extension because I still see my future here.

"We still have so much to achieve and every time I cross that white line I do so with the aim of being the best possible version of myself for the club, the fans and the coaching staff.

"I take it upon myself to be a leader for this group, both on and off the pitch. Getting that contract signed early and being able to focus on my football was the best thing that could have happened for me."

However, the defender has found it hard to enjoy Town's success on the road this season highlighting the club's home form as an area for improvement between now and the end of the season.

Town's number six has been an ever present in Simon Weaver's line-up for key results on the road including draws with Stockport & Wrexham and wins against Newport & Grimsby.

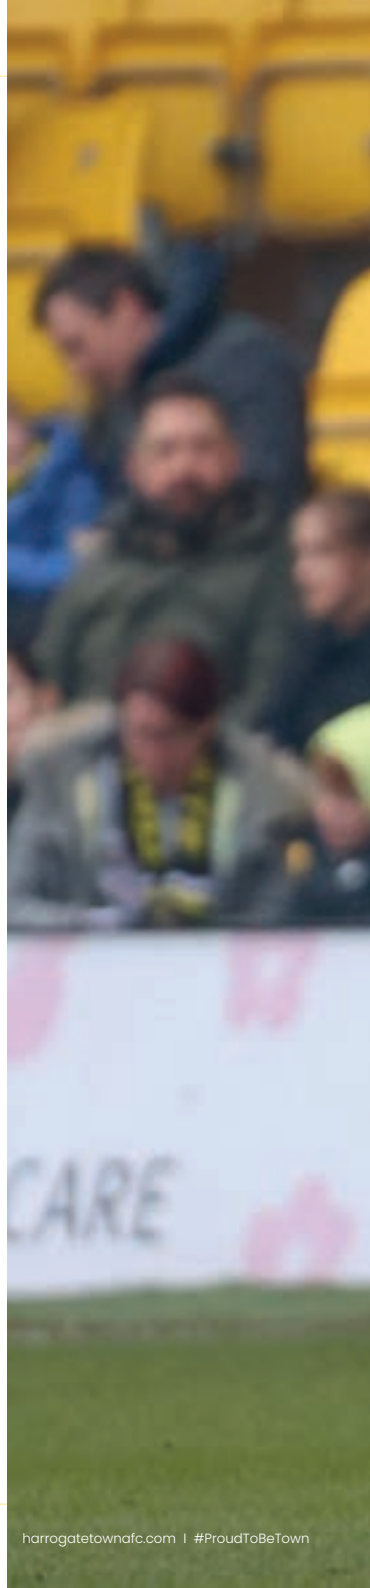

Speaking on the season so far, Burrell said: "It's hard to really put the season into context before we have got to the end to be honest. We have had some great spells over the course of the campaign but there has also been runs where we have been disappointed.

"The Blackburn and Mansfield defeats are two that stand out. Heavy defeats like that are not acceptable but you look at something like our away form, it has been fantastic.

"Of course, mentioning the away form, we have to look at our form at home. We have been poor this season at home, we simply haven't won enough of our home matches and we need to address that.

"It's been fantastic to be a part of performances like Wrexham and Stockport away. However, knowing we can reach those levels makes the disappointing performances at home even more frustrating.

"We want to give the home fans more afternoons like that, they come out in their numbers every week. We are looking to enhance our home following so it's definitely frustrating that we haven't been able to give them more with results at home.

"The Bradford game is always a big one in our season, looking at the game it's a perfect opportunity for us to start picking up results at home. It's a derby and of course that means a lot to the fans. It also means a lot to us as players and staff.

"We have enjoyed good results against Bradford since coming into the league. However, they count for nothing if we don't go and put in a good performance today.

"There is no doubting the fact that our squad is full of quality players. It has been that way for a while now but we have real belief in the group of players we have.

"Everyone here is united, we have a common goal of giving our all for this football club and hopefully that can see us finish as high up the league table as possible."

Throughout the previous 390 appearances, Simon Weaver has relied heavily on Burrell's versatility to perform across the backline and in midfield. When speaking on that challenge, Burrell is pleased to be helping the football club in whatever way he can.

"That versatility is something I have been able to provide for a while now, I am used to the challenge of that. I have done my bit for this club by playing in multiple positions.

"I am always keen to do whatever I can to help this football club. If that is how I do that then I will continue to give my all when I am called upon."

"Obviously, it can impact your rhythm as a player a little bit. However, that is a challenge that I have had to get used to over the years.

"Naturally, this season there has been times where I haven't been in the team and that has been tough. I want to play every possible game but I have knuckled down and worked hard in training to prepare for when the opportunity does come."

With a fairly resolute backline this season, Burrell believes this is a key indicator of the togetherness the squad has off the field and a factor which cannot be underestimated.

"It's a huge thing to have that harmony, if you are to achieve success then there has to be quality across the squad. That competition for places drives a standard and I think we have that here.

"Everyone playing knows they need to be at a certain standard, if they are not meeting that then there is a talented player waiting for their opportunity to impress.

"The mentality within our group has been fantastic this season. We have maintained level head throughout the ups and downs. We have been involved in some crazy games this season but after our defeats we have dealt with the disappointment quickly.

"That's the beauty of football, there is always a chance to put a disappointing result right. We have worked hard to make sure we do that more often than not."

In discussing the group dynamics, the 33-year-old believes club captain Josh Falkingham has a key role to play in this mentality.

"As captain and vice-captain, Falks and I have a huge role to play in this football club. Not all of his contributions are visible. This season, he has had to handle the disappointment of not being in the team.

"That is something that we have had to come to terms with as older lads, we want to play every single game possible but that isn't always the best option.

"However, he has shown fantastic professionalism to put that behind him and to make sure he is there as a leader for the lads who are playing.

"He is a role model for the whole squad, every day he applies himself so well in training and that rubs off on the players around him."

As vice-captain, Town's number six also took the opportunity to praise midfielder and close friend George Thomson who currently leads the way on the scoring charts for Town.

"Thommo has been amazing, throughout this season he has consistently delivered important goals and assists. His record is unbelievable and seeing him every day in training, you can see how dedicated he is to his craft.

"He is the ultimate professional, every day he is one of the first in and the last out. He is always in the gym and is always doing everything he can to be the best possible version of himself.

"He has belief in himself but has worked hard too. Every time he goes onto the pitch, you can see he is giving absolutely everything he has."

The defender is also pleased to see Jack Muldoon reap the rewards of his work on the training pitch.

"He dedicates himself to his game, every day he is one of the first in and one of the last out. At 34, he is always trying to better himself. He is never happy with where his game is at and he is always doing everything he can to be on the pitch.

"When he plays, he runs himself into the ground for the club and this season he has been chipping in with the numbers when we have needed him too.

"We played together at Sheffield FC and at Worksop Town so I love to see someone like him doing so well."

While paying tribute to the club's 'old guard' Burrell is pleased to see James Belshaw back at the club, having played a huge role in our two promotions in recent seasons.

"He brings a calmness to our back four, you can see the quality he has as a shot stopper and with the ball at his feet. Off the pitch, he is a personality and someone we have known for a very long time.

"He was part of our success to get to this point, it is nice to see him back with us. It was a move that came from nowhere really but since then it's been clear to see the quality he has brought to the football club."

Looking ahead to the remaining games of the campaign, Town's vice-captain has urged the squad to seize their opportunity and make this campaign one to remember.

"We want to keep progressing season on season, the record points tally is a sign of progress but there will still be a slight disappointment if we don't finish as high up the table as we believe we can.

"We have worked hard to put ourselves in some fantastic positions at different stages of the season. We want that to reflect on our league position come the end of the season.

"There has been times this season where we have shown a level of consistency which we haven't been able to do in previous seasons. Next season, we want to continue with that consistency while cutting out the bumps in the road.

"We want to be consistent through our style of play, we want to be consistent in our messages and in our vision of what we are trying to achieve. Personally, I want to keep grafting and doing everything I can for this football club.

"We don't want to go into next season on the back of disappointing form at home. We want to see the end of that this season and hopefully we can put that right with the home games that remain.

"If we can, we go into next season flying and confident in our ability and hopefully this place can be a fortress during the next campaign."

As the 400 appearance landmark rolls into view, Burrell admits he is excited for the future.

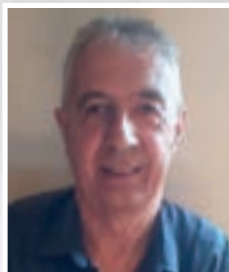

"As a club, we have to keep progressing, from the outside, people will say we are punching above our weight but we want to keep going. We want to keep proving people wrong and to keep taking this club to places it has never been before.

"I have always been able to see the progress the club is making. I think that comes from the club's values and those are implemented by the likes of the gaffer, Thirs and the chairman.

"As players we are right behind them because they want to take the club as high as they possibly can."

BACK IN TIME

FRIDAY 9TH JULY 2004

TOWN'S CLUB HISTORIAN PHIL HARRISON LOOKS BACK AT A MEMORABLE GAME IN OUR HISTORY

It's amazing to think that we met Bradford City 16 times pre-season at Wetherby Road before meeting up for the first time in competition in our first season in EFL for 2020/21.

That season Town completed the double over 'The Bantams' winning 1-0 away with a Lloyd Kerry goal and 2-1 at home thanks to goals from Jack Muldoon and Josh McPake with Andy Cook scoring for City but unfortunately behind closed doors due to the pandemic.

Our first ever encounter was over 40 years ago prior to the 1982/83 season against their reserve side winning 3-1, 1983/84 saw a 2-1 defeat, 1984/85 Town won 3-2, 1985/86 not sure of result but all proceeds went to the City disaster appeal after that horrific fire at Valley Parade. Town won 3-0 1986/87 when Trevor Cherry was their manager, 1987/88 lost 4-3, 1988/89 result unknown, 1989/90 lost

6-3 with Terry Yorath as City's boss before a break until 1992/93 and a 1-1 draw with Frank Stapleton in charge. We lost the 1993/94 match 4-3 and 1994/95 drew 2-2. It was a 10 year gap before we met again, perhaps because City were now in the Premier League 1999/2000 and 2000/01 with Town in Northern Premier League Division One, six leagues apart. How times have changed! The next time they met was at Wetherby Road on Friday 9 July 2004 with Bradford, now in the Championship under new manager Colin Todd and Town in the Conference North. It ended in a 5-0 loss for Town against a strong Bantams side in front of 811. Bradford scorers were Muirhead, Schumaker, Windass, Summerbee, and Penford.

Today's picture shows Bradford manager Colin Todd (white shirt) watching the match. Further friendlies 2007/08 a 1-0 loss for Town when the crowd was 1,475, 2013/14 Bradford won 2-1 before 746 and 2018/19 Bradford won 7-2 with 1,082 in attendance.

HARTLEPOOL UNITED VS HARROGATE TOWN

SAT 16 MARCH
YOUTH ALLIANCE NORTH EAST

HTL 1

Robbie Wilson got Town's opener

Last Saturday Town's Academy visited Hartlepool United in a Youth Alliance North East clash and came away 3-1 victors with goals from Robbie Wilson, Finn O'Boyle and Elijah Samuels.

After a quick tempo start to the game, Town looked to have taken the lead on six minutes when a lovely flick over the defence from Manny Ilesanmi found the feet of O'Boyle who struck the ball low past the keeper but the goal was ruled out for offside. Town continued to look the more likely to break the deadlock creating numerous chances with Ilesanmi, O'Boyle and Wilson all coming close. In the 31st-minute Harry Hindle's goalward bound header was brilliantly saved by the home keeper. Town continued to push for the opener and O'Boyle was again denied after smart work from Ilesanmi and Wilson.

Hartlepool began to grow into the game in the final stages of the half, but Alex Mooney in the Town goal remained largely untroubled and the teams went in goalless at the break.

Town finally got their reward just 26 seconds after the restart as Wilson beat his defender before striking the ball into the roof of the net.

Town continued to control possession and create chances and on 64 minutes, Town finally got the second goal that their dominance deserved as O'Boyle intercepted a loose pass to race through on goal and slot the ball home.

Hartlepool looked to get back into the game and on 78 minutes pulled one back as the Pools striker tapped in on the line after Mooney had superbly kept out three attempts but Town had failed to be clear.

Three minutes later substitute Samuels made an instant impact to restore Town's two goal cushion picking up the ball in the final third and hitting a long range strike into the bottom left corner.

Town comfortably saw out the remaining minutes to register a thoroughly deserved and much-needed 3-1 away victory.

UNITE FOR ACCESS

Today is our dedicated 'Unite for Access' match day. This year and beyond, Level Playing field is excited to bring this expectation to reality through 'Unite For Access'.

Sport is a unique and vital part of the social tissue that binds communities and brings about a sense of belonging, and disabled people must not be excluded from this because of their disability. Therefore, Level Playing Field calls on all clubs and supporters, disabled and non-disabled, to Unite for Access.

The Community Foundation have a long history of working with disability groups, having worked with Spring Hill last year to take students on a bespoke residential experience and this academic year we have worked with partner school Cambian Spring Hill, an SEND educational setting children with autism.

Before Christmas, the participants had a special visit from Club Captain, Josh Falkingham & Emmanuel Ilesamni who joined in with the session and took part in a Q&A about their careers in football.

WORLD BOOK DAY

On 7th March, we joined forces with Premier League Charitable Fund and The National Literacy Trust to harness the power of football to engage over 150 children across five different schools within Harrogate & District.

We wanted to help promote the message of reading for pleasure, offering every child and young person the opportunity to have a book of their own. Each school had a special visit from first team players. Talking about their favourite books and what they enjoy to read in the spare time.

YOUNG FANS VOICE GROUP

Are you 12-17 years old, or know someone who is? We have a brand new opportunity for you!!

Do you want to have your say on Harrogate Town AFC match day experience, community activities and beyond. This is a brilliant opportunity for young people to be the driving force of the Club & Community!

INTRODUCING BRADFORD CITY

Alan Martin/Colorsport/Shutterstock

IN THE DUGOUT GRAHAM ALEXANDER

APPOINTED: NOV 2023
AGE: 52

Graham was appointed the Bantams new manager in November 2023, putting pen-to-paper on a deal until 2026

Graham had a long playing career making over 800 appearances for clubs such as Burnley, Preston North End and Luton Town.

He started his managerial career at Fleetwood Town in 2012 and in his first full season in charge he guided the Cod Army through the League Two play-offs and got the club promoted into League One.

Bringing a wealth of experience, he has managed other clubs across the EFL including Scunthorpe United, Salford City and most recently Milton Keynes Dons. He also had a stint in Scotland with Motherwell, getting them European football.

MEET SOME KEY MEN FOR THE BANTAMS

Joe Toth/Shutterstock

BRAD HALLIDAY

Brad joined the Bantams in July 2022 following his departure from Fleetwood Town. The right-back began his career in Middlesbrough's academy before enjoying loan spells at York City, Hartlepool United and Accrington Stanley. An experienced defender, Halliday has spent time in Sky Bet League One with Doncaster Rovers and Fleetwood Town, before moving to Bradford and became one of three players to amass over 50 appearances in his debut campaign.

Joe Toth/Shutterstock

RICHIE SMALLWOOD

City's skipper signed for the Bantams in July 2022 following the expiry of his contract at Hull City. Naturally a deep-lying midfielder, Smallwood graduated from Middlesbrough's academy and featured 60 times for Boro. A loan spell at Rotherham was made permanent in 2014, and in three years with the Millers, he made over 100 appearances. The experienced midfielder, who has now made over 400 career appearances, enjoyed lengthy spells at Blackburn and Hull City, where he took the captaincy.

Phil Oldham/Shutterstock

ANDY COOK

After spending the second half of the 2020/21 season on loan with the Bantams, Cook signed permanently from Mansfield Town in June 2021.

Born in Bishop Auckland, Cook started his professional career at Carlisle United before finding regular football at Barrow. He ended his three-year spell in Cumbria as Barrow's top goalscorer, netting 17 in 39 appearances.

The striker then moved to Grimsby Town in the summer of 2012, before another spell at Barrow. Cook then spent two seasons at Tranmere Rovers and was the top goalscorer in both of his seasons at Prenton Park, aiding Tranmere to promotion into the EFL in 2017/18.

Establishing himself in the EFL, the No.9 spent time at Walsall and Mansfield Town, before signing for the Bantams on loan in the 2020/21 season.

Cook had his most prolific campaign in 2022/23, scoring 31 goals in all competitions and becoming the first Bantam in history to end the season as the outright divisional top goalscorer, picking up the club's Player of the Year award. This year the 33-year-old tops the City scoring charts again with 15 goals so far this campaign.

Joe Toth/Shutterstock

JAMIE WALKER

Signing in the summer of 2022 after spending the second half of the 2021/22 campaign on loan at the University of Bradford Stadium, the Scot began his career in his home country, playing over 240 times for Hearts across two spells. Scoring 43 times for his boyhood club, Walker won promotion to the Scottish Premiership twice before beginning life in England at Wigan Athletic. The attacking midfielder won promotion to the Championship with the Latics before moving back to Hearts in 2019.

Richard Lee/Shutterstock

ALEX GILLIEAD

Alex joined City from Scunthorpe United on a two-year deal in the summer of 2021, for a third spell with the Bantams. The 26-year-old who wore the captain's armband on numerous occasions at the Sands Venue Stadium during the 2020/21 season, spent the second half of the 2016/17 campaign on loan at the Bantams from Newcastle United, before returning the following campaign. Gilliead also played for Shrewsbury Town in Sky Bet League One, before spending two seasons with the Iron.
